Acoustic and Decorative paneling

Can you hear me? Maybe you need to smarten up your office or maybe you would like to improve the acoustics and the aesthetics of your everyday working environment. Then Highlands Timber Coating can point you in the right direction. We can supply and pre-finish or just pre-finish your decorative panels here in our factory. No job to big or small. It is amazing what a wall of decorative paneling or some lovely timber faced ceiling tiles will do to freshen up your office space.
