

Product News

Looking for a way to paint doors so as that they last?

To make things last, you must come to us first. Highlands Timber Coating offers a service in painting domestic and commercial doors. The way we do it is cost effective, they will look good and be easier to clean. We can re-paint or can supply and paint. Every colour is available and the service is second to none. The way to beatify your home or office doors is to get them painted professionally.